

I support New Jersey's Do Not Call List as it is. Do not change it. In fact, strenthen it more and prosecute offenders swiftly and to the fullest extent.

I resent the intrusion of telemarketers into my home on a telephone service for which I pay. When the day comes when telemarketers pay for my phone service, then I would consent to them calling me.